Leading global health authorities like the World Health Organization, Centers for Disease Control, American Heart Association, National Cancer Institute, and American Diabetes Association agree that the key to preventing disease and promoting health is weight management, physical activity and eating a nutrient-rich diet that includes whole grains, fruits & vegetables, and fish.

The problem: 90% of us don’t eat the recommended 5-13 servings of fruits and vegetables. And a majority find it difficult or impossible to meet basic whole grain and fish recommendations.
